

How can the FCC allow Sinclair Broadcasting to force its stations to air an anti-Kerry piece as a documentary? This isn't news....it's a political advertisement, and as such should be paid for by the Republican National Committee!